This image is a cropped portion of a topographic map. It displays several contour lines, which are wavy lines representing lines of equal elevation. Numerical values are scattered across the map, including 29.9, 32, 50, 40, 35, 32, 49, 30, 28, and 26. Some of these numbers are enclosed in small circles or squares. The map also contains some handwritten-style text, such as "50" and "40", which may be labels for specific features or elevations. The overall appearance is that of a technical drawing or a map fragment.

WAGNER'S REVIEW

Drift of the Weather.
Illinois and Wisconsin—Fair tonight and Thursday; moderate temperature.
Nebraska—Fair tonight and Thursday; warmer in west and central to night.

Liverpool Situation.
Liverpool—Steadiness in America stimulated support at opening and values were 1/4 to 1/2 higher. Following opening there was some pressure in a small way and largely in May on talk of liberal tenders on contract. Indian and Australian offers are small and private reports forecast light Argentine shipments this week. Russian official reports are bearish. At 1:30 underdone was quiet but steady, with prices unchanged. Corn opened 1/4 higher on rains in Argentine and steadiness in Buenos Ayres. Later there was some pressure in the near month on the quiet demand for spot.

Morning Grain Letter.
Chicago, April 15.—Big shorts in corn and oats covered on Tuesday and will evidently go slow for a few days. Local sentiment on corn leans to bearish side. Sentiment is not soundly bearish on wheat. Rainfall is expected any many believe July and September wheat will hold these levels at least all month. September corn and September provisions are considered the best sales on the list. The Mexican news indicates that the United States is after customs duties to protect European and should have no effect on grain. The new grading of corn will have no effect on corn futures. After closing out old trades all trades will apply new grading style.

Favorable farm work weather prevailed over 75 per cent of the United States yesterday. Cash corn sales here on Tuesday were again small at 90,000. Position of the recent bull leaders in corn is not clear. They have presumably decreased their line and are selling on 2 cents advances. Rank and file of locals refuse to believe in a bull corn campaign. May and July oats are at a substantial discount under cash stuff and shorts are due to buy on soft spots. Should be more indecision in grain trend. Early movement either way likely to be reversed for a turn. Looks as stocks are certainly a buy for a turn.

ance. Argentine corn continues easy to buy for shipment ahead.

The amount on purchase by the east does not appear large, but it equals the full shipments of the Chicago market for a full month, and is also an indication that the east believes it can buy slowly in the west. On the basis of an April clearance the bulk of these new purchases will arrive in June.

The new corn grading rule will be absolutely without effect on futures quotations. The new plan commercializes the various grades and gives them distinction and character. May corn orders will be old style. July, September and December will be old and new. There is no advantage in trading in either style. Delivery situation mainly unchanged.

The corn market is now discounting failure of the normal April eastern demand. The futures continue in a dis-turbed condition. Phlegmatic digest of western and southwestern corn conditions breeds skepticism as to the necessity of a corn decline below 65 per cent. Personally, we think the question of below 65 belongs to May and June news.

Hog prices struggle to rise and prod-ucts want to go in the opposite direc-tion. The list has hardly changed its price position in four-month period. Lard is 20 to 30 points lower. Market seems destined to lose its bulges.

Europe has shut its eyes dreamily on our unending winter wheat promise and the bottomless bins of Russia. Her supplies are decreasing and she will not awake until dry weather alarms shake the United States. Fifteen days of the finest April ever seen has cost July and September wheat 1/4 of one cent. Moral—we are near April low points.

All new July, September and Decem-ber corn will be handled as "new style." Old contracts will be closed out as old style. Please remember this when wiring or writing. The distinction is mainly technical, as the object is to line up all new contracts on the new grading basis quickly.

Social Events

PRENUPTIAL LUNCHEON.

The Misses Norma and Edna Wiese entertained yesterday at 1 o'clock at a luncheon at their home on Brown street, Davenport, as a pre-nuptial courtes-y in honor of Miss Otis Stibolt and Miss Mildred McHarg, two spring brides. The guests were served at numerous small tables that were scattered throughout the rooms. There were decorations of pink and green col-ors that had been chosen for the com-ing nuptials, candles and shades with favors and drawings of brides on the place cards adding to the charming effect. The afternoon following the serving of the luncheon was devoted to playing cards, the prizes going to Miss Irma Matthey, Mrs. Carl Lambach and Miss Claire Schlegel, with pretty favors for the guests of honor. Miss Elsie Bolln of Omaha, Neb., was an out of town guest.

SHARON-BAYLIS.

This evening at 8:30 o'clock takes place the marriage of Mrs. Edna Gilman-Baylis of Davenport and Dr. Thomas Sharon also of Davenport, the ceremony to be performed by Dean Marmaduke Hare of Trinity Episcopal cathedral, Davenport, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. James Bollinger. The house will be trimmed in Easter lilies and pink hyacinths, and members of the families will be the guests. The bride couple will be un-attended. Later in the evening a com-pany of friends has been invited to a reception, when a lunch on buffet will be served. Dr. Sharon is a practicing physician in Davenport, both he and his bride being well known in tri-city social circles. They will be at home after July 1 at 1539 Farnam street, Davenport.

THEREE G. CLUB WITH MRS. NELSON.

Three G club members enjoyed a de-lightful afternoon yesterday with Mrs. E. Nelson, 641 Forty-first street, as the hostess at the monthly meeting. The ladies devoted the afternoon to their needle work and visiting. The house was made very attractive with Easter decorations and hyacinths, and late in the afternoon a three course lunch was served in the dining room. The table decorations were hyacinths and at each place was an Easter favor. The club will meet May 14 with Mrs. Paul Sippel as the hostess.

WEST END W. C. T. U.

A largely attended meeting of the West End Woman's Christian Temper-ance union was held yesterday after-noon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Wag-ner, 614 Fourth street. The program of the afternoon was in charge of the president Mrs. S. M. Willson, and vari-ous members of the circle read leaflets on temperance work. Plans were made for the May meeting which will be social in nature with the hope of interesting other women in the west end of the city in the W. C. T. U. work.

MATINEE BRIDGE CLUB.

The members of the Matinee Bridge club were entertained yesterday after-noon by Mrs. W. J. Talty, 1528 Twelfth avenue, Moline. Three tables of the game were played, and to Mrs. Ernest Jericho and Mrs. A. J. Kuchman fell the prizes. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games. The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs. Jericho.

OBSERVE BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Yesterday was the birthday anni-versary of Miss Lydia Olson and in honor of the occasion she kept open house last evening, a large number of her friends calling at her home, 3912 Eighth avenue. The evening was spent with music and informal soci-ability and a lunch was served. The hostess received a number of nice gifts and flowers.
